R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 78 STATE, OPPOSITE KILLIST, BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.—
Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers in Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign Patents or Inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by any other elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE successful AT THE PATENT OFFICE AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber, during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer
superior facilities for obtaining patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington,
to procure a patent, and the usual great delay
there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practical men with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in saying that Mr. Eddy is a man of great ability, and more capable of putting his applications in a form to secure for them a early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. P. Eddy has made for me FIF-TEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of his great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858,
the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made, on twice rejected applications, SIX-TEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

ART AND LITERATURE.

The GREAT REPUBLIC Monthly for April is received. It chief article is an illustrated sketch of a summer in the Adirondack woods, very truthfully and well told. It is worth the reading of those who think camping out, and forest life nothing but a species of elegant leisure.

The Firemen and the Tombs, two sketches of New York life are ludicrous instances of an affected style in the hands of some one who does not know how to use it. We see such always with pleasure, in hopes that when the bottom of affectation and inversion is once touched we may re-ascent to good old "Queen Anne's English." The other articles are of average merit.

Ticknor & Fields announce a number of new books. Among them is a new narrative of Cuban travel by Richard H. Dana, Jr.; the life of Theophilus Parsons, the great Chief-Justice of Massachusetts, by his son, Professor Parsons; Dante's Inferno, translated by T. W. Parsons; Reminiscences of Geoffrey Hamlyn, a London novel which has made a name.

Poems of Percival (with an original biography), Owen Meredith, Gerald Massey, and Motherwell; a new volume by Saxo; the Avenger and other papers, by De Quincy; Tennyson's new poem, Guinevere at Truth; two new volumes of F. W. Robertson's works; two books by Mrs. Jameson; a new book for boys by Mayne Reid; writings of the Rev. F. D. Maurice; Life of Arnold of Rugby; Goethe's Correspondence with Bettine, &c.

Phillips, Sampson & Co., are going to publish a novel called Sea Cliff, by J. W. De Forest. Mr. F. H. Underwood has returned to their establishment, and will be again connected with the management of The Atlantic Monthly. The article on Agrarianism in the April number, is by C. C. Hazewell; Odds and Ends from the Old World, by Dr. Antonio; Drifting, by S. Buchanan; and the Utah Expedition, by Albert G. Browne, Jr.

At the recent sale of pictures in New York, the following were among the sales. Winterhalter's famed painting "Florinda," the gem of the collection, was sold to Wm. H. Webb for $3,150; Verbeekhoven's "Mother" was sold to a German gentleman for $2,200; the "Moses" of Baume brought $670; Schlessinger's "Speaking Likeness," $515; Casilear's "View of Lake George," $510; Church's "Tribute to Cole," $510; a repetition of Gignoux's "Dismal Swamp," $500; Hillmacher's "Whist Party," $410; Muller's "Primavera," $400; Grosse's "Creation" and "Nativity," each $306; Cole's "Prometheus," $370; Mignot's "Winter Scene," by Mignot, $300; Hart's "Lake on the Hills," $295; Gignoux's "Moonlight on the Saguenay," $290; De Metz's "First Tooth," $260; Lamber's "Love Merchant," $245; Hillmacher's "Concert," $215; Hol. field's "Bread of Life," "Landscape and Cattle," by Hickley, of Boston, "Rabbits at Play," by Hays, each $200. The other pictures sold at various prices, the lowest being paid for any one picture being $16. The original sketch of the third of Cole's "Voyage of Life," series brought $100. The prices on the whole were fair, but not exorbitant, and some of the pictures brought less than their real value.

The Vatican Manuscript, the most famous codex of the original Scriptures of the New Testament will shortly be made available to scholars at a reasonable price. The Vatican Manuscript, edited by Cardinal Mai, contains not only the New Testament, but also the Septuagint version of the Old Testament Scriptures, and is comprised in five folio volumes. The first four contain the Old and the fifth the New Testament, and the only means of obtaining the Roman edition is by purchasing the entire work, at the cost of about $50.—The Codex Vaticanus of the New Testament will soon be printed in London, verbatim from the Roman edition, recently published at the price of only twelve shillings per copy. This Manuscript is believed to be the most ancient in existence, and modern biblical critics assign its date to the middle of the fourth century. Its history is involved in impenetrable obscurity, and no one can tell at what period it was first placed on the shelves of the Vatican, but early in the sixteenth century it was generally known throughout Europe as the most venerable manuscript of the New Testament. It has always been jealously guarded, and its contents concealed from vulgar gaze. When Dr. Bentley contemplated an edition of the Greek Testament in 1721, he visited Rome, hoping to obtain permission to collate the Codex Vaticanus, but was denied access to the manuscript.

The transfer of Mr. Prescott's copyrights from the Harpers to Phillips, Sampson & Co., is explained in a manner not very creditable to the former firm, who make the credit of having recommended P. S. & Co. to the author.

A short time before the publication of "Phillips II," the contract under which the Messrs. Harper used his stereotype plates and published from his works, expired.

The firm of Phillips, Sampson & Co., heard of the approaching termination of the contract, and the readiness of the new history for publication. The senior partner—Mr. Phillips—immediately opened a correspondence with Mr. Prescott, which resulted in an interview, and a consequent offer.

Mr. Prescott replied that he was pleased with the terms of the proposal, and for many reasons would prefer to have his works published in Boston; but as an honorable man, he must ascertain whether the Harpers would do as well by him, before he accepted the proposition. He accordingly wrote to the Harpers, who replied, as it is said, somewhat cavalierly, and did not make an offer so favorable as Messrs. Phillips, Sampson & Co.

Mr. Prescott closed the contract with Messrs. P. S. & Co., or at any rate gave them notice that he would. The Messrs. Harpers had by this time discovered their mistake, and sent him an offer identical with that made by Phillips, Sampson & Co.

But it was too late and Messrs. Harpers felt much chagrined when Mr. Prescott, in his gentlemanly way, thanked them for their past favors, informed them of his new business relations, and directed them to put his plates in good condition and send them to Boston.

A Boston paper says that the Adirondack Club, composed of philosophers, authors, savants, artists, and ordinary human beings, the prominent members of which are Ralph Waldo Emerson, James Russell Lowell, Professors Agassiz and Wyman, are about purchasing twelve thousand acres of land in the wilds of Adirondack, building a commodious camp-house, and making all convenient arrangements for their annual sojourn in the woods. As the land can be purchased for 12 1/2 cents per acre, it will be seen that the land, 12,000 acres of wood, lakes, ravines, brook-trout, bears and panthers can be bought and paid for without producing any great panic in the money market.

Letters from Florence say that Mr. Hart's statue of Henry Clay in marble, for the ladies of Virginia, will be completed in a short time, and will be shipped for Virginia early in the coming Summer. The statue of Mr. Clay, in bronze, for New Orleans, which was contracted for in 1857, will be finished and will reach its destination before the time specified in the contract.

The London Critic is at length enabled to state, upon evidence of the highest authority, that the author of the celebrated Festivals of the Natural History of Creation, first published in 1844, and which has since gone through several editions, was the late Dr. George Combe, who died about a year ago.

How WINE IS MANUFACTURED.—In the little, active and flourishing seaport of Cote, in the south of France, and bordering on the Mediterranean, the manufacture of all kinds of wines, from "humble Port to imperial Tokay" is carried on most extensively, without the juice of the grape. The imports to this busy mercantile community are inferior spirits, log-wood and Brazil wood, which leave in the form of choice French, Spanish and Portuguese wines, with the aid of sugar, vinegar, and other chemical admixture. To the merchants of Cote, it matters not that the grape vine fails; or, rather, it does matter—for their wine rises in price, and the failure of the grape does not affect the price of bad whiskey, log-wood, &c., the increased price of their wine is a perfect windfall to them. Inferior malt liquors—without hops we presume—are also in demand for the manufacture of choice wines.—Thus it is that the whole world of ideal wine-bibbers are systematically humbugged. But why should we enlarge on the subject? It has been so thoroughly ventilated that none can plead absolute ignorance. The wonder is that any man can ask a friend to take a glass of wine without laughing in his face—so well does he know that what he calls "wine" on conventional usage, is only a palatable cheat. As we have already hinted, these frauds are not confined to Europe, nor to wine. They are universal and all pervading, and the strong arm of the law ought to be invoked to suppress them.—N. Y. Express.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.—We rejoice to learn that there are to have the opportunity of hearing the Hon. Thomas Davis again in this city before election. It is supposed that his last visit was worth to him an increase of at least one hundred votes, in Newport alone, and we trust that the next will double the number. He and the Hon. Down Platt, of Cincinnati, are announced to address a Republican Ratification meeting at the State House on Friday evening next.

A caucus of the American Republican party of this city was held last evening at the State House last evening, pursuant to a call, to nominate a Senator and Representatives to the General Assembly. The meeting was called to order by Pardon W. Stevens, and W. D. Lake chosen Chairman and F. A. Pratt Secretary.—On motion, it was voted that the following gentlemen serve as a nominating committee, to report at an adjourned meeting: Ward 1, J. O. Topham, Pardon W. Stevens; Ward 2, William Mason, Robert Seale; Ward 3, Benj. Finch, Wm. E. Wilson; Ward 4, Seth W. Mayo, Joseph B. Weaver; Ward 5, Daniel Curtis, &c. Adjourned to Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, at the same place.

NEWPORT AMATEUR MUSICAL ASSOCIATION.—A meeting was held, Monday evening, in Mechanics' Hall, of those persons favorable to the formation of an association for the perpetuation of the Sacred Music in popular use in the days of our fathers. The meeting was called to order by Milton Hall, Esq., and B. W. Pearce chosen Secretary. W. D. Lake, Esq., from a committee previously appointed for that purpose, reported a preamble and constitution for the government of the association, which were unanimously adopted, and an organization effected, adopting the name forming the caption to this article. The following officers were elected for one year:

President.—MILTON HALL.
Vice President.—JAMES A. GREENE.
Conductor.—EZEKIEL TOURJEE.
Secretary.—B. W. PEARCE.
Treasurer.—R. R. CARR.
Librarian.—W. D. SOUTHWICK.
Auditor.—B. MARSH.

These officers constitute a Board of Directors for the government of the Society, and to whom, individually, all applications for membership should be made. The initiation fee, to males, is one dollar. Ladies admitted by subscribing to the Constitution.

The rehearsals of the society will be held on Monday evening of each week, commencing with next Monday evening. We expect to be able, soon, to announce the definite time for a concert, which will take place some time in April. The weekly rehearsals will be held in Mechanics' Hall.

COURT RECORD.

The Court met at 8 o'clock, yesterday, and granted naturalization to Carl Felton, and a divorce in the case of Rebecca Card against Charles J. Card.

At 10 o'clock, the case of the State vs. John F. Young was taken up, Mayor Cranston acting for the Attorney General and Mr. Van Hook for defence. This was a prosecution for entering the shop of Job P. Stanton, with intent to steal therefrom. Jury disagreed and discharged, after being out five hours.

The next case was State vs. George E. Road, for receiving stolen money from the above Young. Mayor Cranston for prosecution. W. G. Hammond for defence. Found guilty.

In these cases the Court ruled that a convicted offender may be restored, by pardon from the Governor and Senate, to his oath and all other privileges, except that of voting. The necessity of a vote of both Houses for the restoration of this privilege rests on a special clause in the Constitution.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—The first case taken up was that of the Merchants Bank of Newport against Joseph Manton, on a note of $500 made by the Valley Worsted Co., endorsed by defendant, the endorsement of which was said by him to be a forgery. Sheffield for plaintiffs, Bradley for defendant.

Messrs. George W. Taylor, Benjamin Munford, Charles D. Hammett, Henry C. Stevens, John W. Vose, and Augustus C. Tower, testified to their opinion of the genuineness of the signature, either from their acquaintance with the defendant's handwriting, or from comparison with checks signed by him.

In defence, Mr. Manton himself took the stand, and pronounced the endorsement positively a forgery, producing similar notes which he really had endorsed and taken up, and the book on which he had entered these latter, and on which the note in question was not entered. His genuine endorsements for the Valley Worsted Company amounted to $12,000 or $14,000, all of which, except one, have been taken up. The amount of forged paper is about $10,000, drawn by Mr. Proud, a son-in-law of defendant, who is now in Germany.

Messrs. Shubael Hutchins, John Noyes, P. H. Brown, and Waterman, the three latter Cashiers of Banks in Providence, all testified to their opinion that the endorsement was a forgery of Proud's.

LECTURE.—Rev. C. H. Malcom lectured before Hercules Engine Company No. 7 of this city and their friends, on Monday evening last. His subject was the life and character of Ebenezer Elliot, the English poet. The lecture is spoken of, by those who listened to it, as one of Mr. Malcom's happiest productions. The next lecture will be by Col. C. C. Van Zandt, it is expected next Tuesday evening.

A FUGITIVE GOVERNOR.—The Panama correspondent of The N. O. Picayune tells the following story:

"A friend from Chili, an American civil engineer of high character, relates to me some incidents connected with the revolution there, one of which he was an eye witness, well worth relating. I wrote you in my last that President Montt had dispatched the twenty-two gun ship Esmeralda to Caldera, with 350 troops, to put down her movement at Copiapo. On dropping anchor in the port, the commander of the Esmeralda discovered a man very composedly sitting on a fine horse, close to the landing, intently watching the ship. Rightly divining that this personage was the revolutionary Governor of Caldera, and wishing by all means to prevent the arrival of the troops from reaching Copiapo, the Esmeralda at once sent four boat loads of armed men to the shore, with orders to prevent the starting of the locomotive, which, it was perceived, was firing up. As the boats neared the beach, the engineer ran for his life, but the Governor jumped on to the locomotive. Presently, as shots from the government rifles dropped like hail on and the iron horse, he gave one defiant snort, and started, like the wind, on his course, breaking the feed-pipe, which was supplying the machine with water. The Governor continued his break-neck course for about fifteen miles, when, the water being exhausted, he ran the locomotive partly off the track, in such a manner that great delay must be experienced in getting it on again. A hand carbing near at hand, he hopped on to it, and propelled it for the distance of about two miles, when he took up several rails and buried them deeply in the sand. A couple of miles further, and buried more rails—and so on, burying rail until he had run the whole fifty miles to Copiapo. In a day or two after, the 350 Government troops by repairing the road, managed to get as far as Monte Amargo, half way from Caldera. Then they advanced twelve miles further, where they were met by 80 of the revolutionists, armed with Sharpe's rifles, who compelled them to fall back to the Monte. The Governor had safely arrived at Copiapo, preventing his party from being taken by surprise. At the last accounts, President Montt's men were fortifying themselves, with every prospect of having to "cut dirt" as soon as a reinforcement of Gallo's little force should come up."

THE GALLANTRY OF SLAVEHOLDERS.—The Commercial Advertiser, speaking of the conduct of Mr. Lamar, the owner of the Wanderer, gives the following new illustration of the hospitality and gallantry of the chivalry of the whip, brand and coffee:

A married lady resident in the neighboring city of Brooklyn, whose name was mentioned in the narrative given to us, has been spending the Winter at a hotel in Aiken, South Carolina, in company with a sick daughter, who required a mild climate. A few weeks ago she wrote to a brother residing in the western part of this State, and in the course of the letter spoke of the evils of Slavery, as she saw them around her. This letter was published, and some one sent a copy of the paper to the Postmaster at Aiken. A public meeting was immediately called, and a Committee appointed to ferret out the writer. A Northern gentleman, who, as an invalid, happened also to be at the hotel, was suspected, and was threatened with lynx law if he did not confess. As, of course, he could only persist in a denial, he would have probably suffered accordingly, had not the lady nobly come forward to exonerate him by acknowledging the letter as her own, affirming, at the same time, that she was not privy to its publication. The citizens then turned their wrath upon her, and she was peremptorily ordered to leave the place in 48 hours. The lady pleaded for more time on behalf of her sick daughter, but the citizens of Aiken knew no such humanity. She asked for liberty to remain until her husband could arrive to escort her and her sick child. But the citizens of Aiken knew nothing of gallantry or courtesy. The order was unrelenting, and she was peremptorily ordered to leave the place in 48 hours.
